

20th Annual Camp

Name: _____

Address: _____

Phone: _____

Email: _____

make checks payable and mail to Bit By Bit Farm, inc.

Student with horse $185.00 if reservation received by June 25 _____

Student with horse $200.00 if reservation received June 26 or later _____ paid in full _____

non refundable reservation of $50.00 _____

must be ordered by June 25 to insure correct size for t shirt adult shirt size needed (circle 1)

s. m. l. xl. xxl. xxxl.

spectators welcomed: $10.00 daily charge

Late entrants may be accepted

Additional information will be sent upon camp registration

Responsibilities: must be willing and able to groom tack up and care for your horse including stall cleaning . Younger participants must make arrangements for help

References provided on request.

Founded in 1978 Bit By Bit Farm, Inc, Jack has been training and giving lessons and judging continuously there ever since . All breeds of horses are accepted for training with the primary focus on pinto and paint horses.

Colts, horses for advanced training and showing and problem horse are accepted. Horses are trained for a range of events ,including. halter, showmanship, western pleasure, trail, driving, hunt seat, horsemanship events, and recreational riding.

Jack and his clients have won over 30 WORLD CHAMPIONSHIPS and many state hi-point awards

In 2009 horses shown by Bit By Bit Farm and clients won year end Hi-point junior and reserve western horse , hi-point and reserve senior western horse, hi point pony and reserve amateur in the In. Pinto Horse Association.

Winning the hi point saddle for all around champion at the Pinto world with Ima a Shady Lady was a much appreciated honor.

An approve judge for more than 30 years for the Pinto, Buckskin, Pony of America, and In 4-H he is often judging when not showing.

20th Annual!!

Jack Brush

Horsemanship Camp

July 8 - 11, 2010

Chief La Fontaine Saddle Club

Huntington, IN

Bit By Bit Farm, inc.

8058 N. Meridian Rd.

Uniondale, IN.46791

jackbrush@verizon.net

Phone:(260) 760-8669

Afternoon session in progress

Hours are from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Thursday - Saturday

8:00 a.m. Until mid afternoon dismissal on Sunday

There are restroom and shower facilities on the grounds and a club house in case of inclement weather

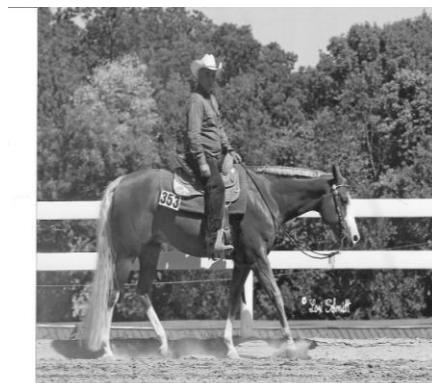

There are stalls for the horse and tack stalls for participants as well

Frequently asked questions:

I have to attend an event during part of the seminar .Can I still participate. Yes- people sometimes have a commitment such as driver's ed ,ball games or practice and have to miss a session

All horse are fed by staff (your feed) so all horses are ready to begin at 8:00 a.m.

INSTRUCTION IS PROVIDED TO READY YOU AND YOUR HORSE FOR YOUR 4-H FAIR SHOW OR SHOWING AT OTHER SHOW AND EVENTS HELD THIS SUMMER THROUGHOUT THE REGION. PEOPLE OF ALL AGES FROM 8 YEARS TO 65+ YEARS HAVE ATTENDED. ATTENDEES HAVE A VARIETY OF EXPERIENCE FROM BEGINNER TO PEOPLE WHO ARE ALREADY SHOWING BUT WISH TO FURTHER THEIR SKILLS. INSTRUCTION IS GEARED TO THE PARTICIPANT'S INDIVIDUAL SKILL LEVEL.

featuring instruction in :

halter, showmanship

western and English pleasure

horsemanship

equitation

trail class, grooming

clipping bathing, and show readiness

general horse handling and care

All participants under 19 years of age will be required to wear a certified ASTM ,SEI or Standard F1163 Helmet. All are encouraged to wear a helmet

Contact Jack for questions or information